Welcome to Longford Primary School

On behalf of the Longford Primary School community, welcome to Longford Primary. Our School has a population of 168 students and is located 7 kilometres from Sale.

The school is renowned for its excellent history of parental involvement in its programs. This dedication has become a vital component in the ongoing education and welfare of students. Our school lives through its values of integrity, respect, responsibility and excellence. These values are embedded and displayed widely through our school.

We value learning behaviours in our students which help them to achieve success in their learning. We place a high emphasis on every student making progress in their learning despite their starting point. We work in Professional Learning Communities to identify each student's ability through assessments. Teachers then work together to establish the best teaching strategy that could be used to move each student onto the next point in their learning. This approach has helped our students achieve high results in NAPLAN and teacher judgements.

Academically our school promotes and values the explicit teaching of literacy and numeracy. We do this through having a consistent teaching approach, using the Workshop Model in Literacy and the Experience First Model in numeracy. In reading, we will continue to focus on students decoding words by sounds as their first strategy, before developing their ability to comprehend the text, while in maths, we will give students opportunities to problem solve and develop their reasoning and fluency skills. Our whole school assessment schedule and computerised academic tracking program ensure that our students are working at their appropriate academic level.

Longford has a proud history of co-curricular success with students participating (and winning) art competitions and a range of sporting events including swimming, cross country and athletics. This combined with our specialist areas of art, music, physical education, LOTE (Indonesian) and Science lead to a very balanced curriculum.

I consider myself very fortunate working at a school where the entire community is focused on delivering great educational opportunities to its students.

We trust that your child's experience at Longford will be enjoyable, challenging and stimulating as he/she experiences a range of programs that cater for his or her development. Our staffing team look forward to working closely with you to make your child's primary years as rewarding as possible.

This booklet is planned to provide you with information about the school's operations and what to expect for your child in beginning their schooling.

Joel Fraser – Principal

Key Learning Areas at Longford Primary School

Literacy

Reading – All students are placed on reading levels depending on their individual needs with the emphasis on decoding and comprehension. As the students become more proficient with their reading the range of material and genre. Students will be placed in ability groups as well as whole class sessions. As part of the Workshop model, students are taught how to make entries into their reader’s notebook which is designed to capture their thinking about what they have read.

Spelling – Our focus for spelling is based on developing students’ phonic knowledge which ensures they learn the sounds letters and letter combinations make and is closely connected with the reading decoding strategy.

Writing – Teachers use the Workshop Model to develop student understanding of the main aspects of writing. Genres include narratives, recounts, persuasive texts, information reports and poetry. Students are encouraged to engage in their writing with emphasis on structure, punctuation, handwriting and spelling. Focus is placed on teaching students particular writing skills they can use as authors.

Numeracy

A high emphasis on the Big Ideas in Maths is expected across all year levels, with different ideas important at different year levels. The Big Ideas identifies key parts of maths, including trusting the count, place value, additive and multiplicative thinking, and partitioning. Number is taught in all classrooms for a minimum of three sessions a week with other sessions focussing on measurement, space, structure, location and chance. Maths at Longford is very hands on, using open ended tasks for students to develop reasoning and justification skills, with students encouraged to practically apply new knowledge into different contexts. We are beginning to learn more about the difference between maths and numeracy and the importance of both.

Inquiry Based Units

Students at Longford will be involved in units of work or ‘Inquiry Units’ that revolve around a particular theme. Themes may include Australian History, Government, Environmental Issues, Migration and The Solar System. Inquiry Units are designed to promote the students’ independent research skills and closely follow an investigative approach.

Science Program

All students will have a 45 minute session per week conducted by a specialist teacher. Topics covered will include biological, physical, earth and chemical science. Emphasis is placed on students developing an understanding of the scientific processes involved in experimentation with time also focusing on reflection of how a science experiment changed their initial ideas on a subject.

All students will have a 45 minute session per week conducted by a specialist teacher. Vocabulary and learning about Indonesian culture provide the foundation of the program which culminates in celebrating Hari Indonesia in August.

Physical Education

Our students' artwork has also been displayed at the Sale Art gallery as part of our involvement in their Art Outreach program.

Student Welfare

School Wide Positive Behaviour

Longford Primary School adopts the School-wide Positive Behaviour student management approach which specifically outlines expected behaviours for all students and promotes the use of them in a variety of contexts throughout the school. Teachers work hard to ensure students meet expectations relating to their learning and behaviour within the classroom and in the playground. All classes have a consistent approach for student discipline which the students are made aware of at the beginning of the year and reminded regularly throughout the year. All discipline issues are documented with parents contacted if needed. Our school prides itself in having an open consistent approach with student management and bullying issues and all parents are encouraged to speak to their classroom teacher or Principal if their children are being subjected to any anti-social behaviours the school is unaware of.

Student Mental Health

Our school has a social worker who attends our school two days per week to provide support and advice to students and staff. Our social worker develops programs to help teach students about emotional resilience whilst also helping to prepare our senior students for their transition to secondary school. Individual student and family support is also provided on a needs basis.

Reporting to Parents

Ongoing feedback between parents, students and teachers on academic and social progress is expected throughout your child's time at Longford Primary School. Our school has a whole school assessment schedule and whole school online assessment tracking to closely monitor your child's progress throughout the year. This information is available to all staff including the Principal and is updated each Term.

Written reports are completed by class teachers and sent home at the end of second and fourth term, while student led conferences occur at the end of term two, accompanying the report.

Emergencies at School

In case of an emergency, such as a fire or accident involving the school as a whole, we have a Displan procedure known by staff to ensure the safety of all. The school will experience a fire drill so children are also familiar with this procedure. Obviously care of children at all times is crucial and in the event of a major emergency or evacuation, the school will come under the control of the Police/Emergency Services. Our 'Compass' App is the first point of information for all emergency announcements including bus closures or delays.

Local ABC Radio will also be a main source of communication.

Labelling

We request that all removable clothing and personal items be labelled clearly with your child's name, or with some form of identification known to your child. Label school bags on the inside with your child's name, address and phone number. Found clothing is placed in a lost property box at the school for your inspection. All unclaimed items will be disposed of at the end of each term.

Toilets

Please ensure your child understands and uses acceptable toilet etiquette before he/she comes to school. The toilets are not a play area. If your child experiences difficulty with toileting, please contact their teacher to best support your child.

Wet/Hot Days

If the duty teacher considers a "wet/hot day" program is necessary, children will be supervised in their classrooms at recess and lunch times. A wet day timetable exists for bus travellers after school. This requests all students to assemble in the indoor assembly room or appointed areas such as the covered area outside of the library.

Attendance

Attendance is important for students' learning, socialisation and wellbeing. A reason is required to be provided to the school for any student absence. If you wish to take your child from the school early, please see the Principal and class teacher. We do not want your child removed from the school by unauthorised persons, nor do we want children leaving the grounds without adult supervision. A "sign out/in kiosk" is located in the front office, which should be used as part of the process.

Upcoming absence information can also be recorded on the Compass app.

Head Lice

You are urged to keep a constant check on your child's hair. There is a consent form on your child enrolment form to allow the school to do visually check hair. Students who have live lice detected in their hair are required to be collected from school immediately.

Illnesses and Infectious Diseases

We request that you do not send your children to school if they are ill prior to departure from home or if they are not fully recovered from an illness. Children are not fully receptive to learning and our facilities for caring for them are limited.
